

Honorary Chair Position

As of September 19, 2012 I establish in the IOCB ASCR, v.v.i., an "Honorary Chair" position, for which such scientific employees will be nominated that have participated in the institute's development in the long term and have contributed to its good reputation in the CR as well as abroad.

The "Honorary Chair" position is conferred by the institute's director on the basis of the recommendations of the Council of the IOCB.

The "Honorary Chair" designation may be used by its holder permanently.

The research team that is led by the holder of the "Honorary Chair" position is included in the institute's organizational structure among senior research teams with all the applicable general rules entailed.
