

Deadline	Thur 31 March 2022 (IOCB deadline 17 Mar 2022)
Competition name	Neuron Prize 2022
www	https://www.nfneuron.cz/novinky/otevirame-nominace-na-ceny-neuron-2022 https://www.nfneuron.cz/nominace-na-ceny-neuron-2022
Organiser	The Neuron Endowment Fund; www.nfneuron.cz ; info@nfneuron.cz
Focused on	Recognition of outstanding Czech researchers, who do research in the Czech Republic or abroad, and whose scientific work or discovery has contributed to the advancement of their scientific field, who increase the prestige of the Czech Republic and who are role models and inspiration for the whole scientific community.
Applicant	Outstanding Czech researcher. Foreign nationals working at a Czech institution can apply if they have permanent resident status in the Czech Republic.
Criteria/Conditions	The importance of scientific contribution to the field, professional guidance of the next generation of scientists. An important criterion in the selection is also personal integrity, openness to various scientific communities and the perception of science as a service to society. The laureate is chosen in cooperation with the international scientific panel.
Institution	Nominations can be supported by deans and vice-chancellors of public institutions, heads of academic institutes or representatives of the Academy of Sciences, members of the Board of the Neuron Fund and past laureates of the Neuron prizes.
IOCB contact	Please consult the Project Office to secure your IOCB Recommendation letter and agreement from the director to be a nominator.
IOCB deadline	17 Mar 2022 – to obtain your IOCB Recommendation letter
Final deadline	Thur 31 March 2022
Evaluation results	May 2022 (candidate selection)
Awarding ceremony	28 September 2022
Awards	Financial gift 1,500,000 CZK; up to 3 prizes per year
Language of application	English
Application consists of	The nomination is submitted using the online application at: https://www.nfneuron.cz/nominace-na-ceny-neuron-2022 <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Name and contact details of the candidate (applicant)</li><li>• Name and contact details of the nominator (must be the director of the institute, obtain agreement via the Project Office)</li><li>• Justification of the nomination and qualities of the candidate (max. 1000 characters)</li><li>• Professional CV of the candidate (English, PDF; upload)</li><li>• Recommendation letters in English, at least 2, max 3 (English, PDF; upload)</li></ul>
Research areas	Chemistry, Biology, Medicine, Mathematics, Physics, Computer Science, Social Sciences
Download documents	Neuron Prize 2022 summary